

Present Perfect and Past Simple

SWOOSH

Cidália Sousa • Cláudia Regina Abreu • Vanessa Reis Esteves

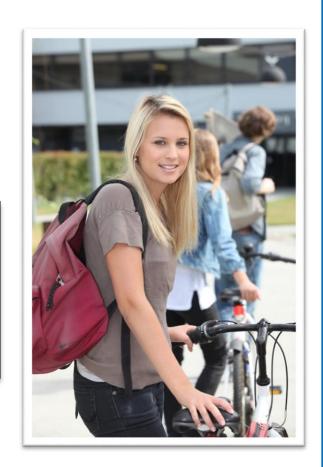

Do you know when you have to use the Past Simple or the Present Perfect?

Susan rode her bike to school yesterday.

When we mention when an action in the past took place, we use the Past Simple.

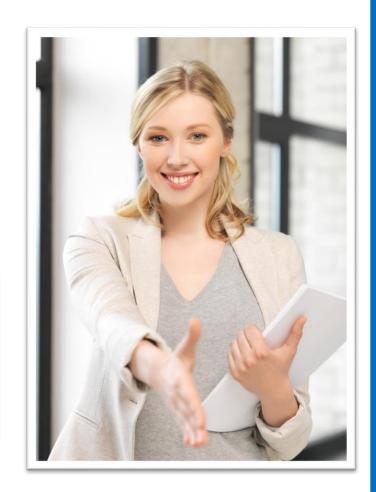

Jessica worked as a secretary for 2 years.

Now she is a manager.

When we refer to an action that is no longer true in the present but that was true in the past, we use the Past Simple.

Peter has worked as a pilot for 2 years.

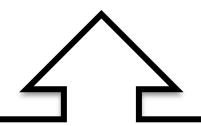

He is still a pilot.

When we refer to an action that began in the past and is STILL true in the present we use the Present Perfect.

I have made a pizza.

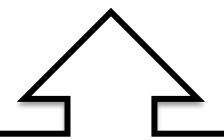

We don't know when...

To describe an action that happened at an unspecific time in the past (we don't know when), we use the Present Perfect.

They have been to London several times, this year.

To describe an action that happened in the past but which is still true in the present, we use the Present Perfect.

Present Perfect: you have to remember
